Sengouji's Dog Commands u(˘˘)u

Sengouji used two different commands in this panel! For Laverock (the dog on his right), he used u-te (ウテ), and for Kafka he used osowon (オソワン U). U-te is the Japanese equivalent for the shobai/shobai hands command; the Japanese use it as a command for the dog to lift its right paw. Osowon, on the other hand, literally means "change", and is meant to have the dog lift its left paw. I'm not sure if there's an equivalent English command for this, and just using "change" is vague, so I translated it in a way as you can see above.

[PS: Some kind of school/teacher Sengouji is, he wears a crown, wields a whipgun, and has two hunting dog slaves to do his bidding? What does he do as a P.W., Sengouji. Just wow.]
